The Bible is often weakly emphasized or even neglected in the education of our children. However, author Starr Meade contends that God's Word is the most important thing a Christian will ever study. This study series is designed to summarize the message of the Bible, encouraging middle and high school students to explore God's Word for themselves. In this two-volume survey of the Old Testament, Meade leads young teens through the story of creation and God's promises to ancient Israel, teaching students about important themes such as God's role as the main character in his own story, the fulfillment of the promises of God, and the relationship between Scripture's divine inspiration and human authorship. Includes volume 5 of the series, which serves as an answer key for the other volumes.

A Complete Analysis of the Holy Bible B&H Publishing Group

Hundreds of millions accept the Bible as the God-breathed (inspired), fully inerrant Word of God. They struggle in today's world of the atheist, agnostic, and skeptic, to convince others that we have a Creator, and he has inspired a written book, to give direction to imperfect man. Why has there been such a struggle to convince the modern man? Unlike centuries past, many unbelievers today have never read the Bible. Thus, they only have a hazy understanding of what is to be found within its pages, hearing mostly conjecture and innuendo about its content. The modern mind may wonder . . . (1) Why should I read a book that is dated to 2,000 - 3,500 years ago, which has nothing to do with the modern high-tech world that is at the center of my life? (2) What does such an ancient book offer that cannot be found in any modern-day self-help book, or on the Internet? (3) Why am I to believe that the Bible is the Word of God, some of those who have claimed to follow it, have spilled more blood than any military force? (4) Has not the modern historian and scientist proven much of the Bible to be full of historical, geographical and scientific errors? (5) Is the Bible not full of myths and legends, penned by authors that were able to deceive the uneducated people of the past? These questions and hundreds of others are asked on the internet, in magazines, books, movies, TV, as well as newspapers every day. Herein lies your opportunity to get the answers. The Lost Books of the Bible and The Forgotten Books of Eden Word Study
