My Life in Times and I Made It Xlibris Corporation

GOD did not intend that any should perish; for that, HE did not only let HIS Son JESUS die to redeem the sinful world, but HE called teachers and prophets to teach the people HIS righteous ways so that they may have eternal life and not be punished in hell as HIS justice requires. Unfortunately to some of us, the same teachers whom GOD has called for the true Gospel of JESUS CHRIST to win souls for the kingdom of GOD has adopted the ways of this world and has abandoned the reason why the LORD called them. Their call to turn sinners to righteousness has become unmentionable in their churches, and they grow weak every day in converting sinners because the devil has made them believe that mentioning sin may be offensive to some of their members who already know that they are sinners. Since their minds are set in pleasing and winning people for themselves rather than winning souls for GOD, they have found fancy and entertaining ways of setting aside the commands of GOD in order to observe their men-introduced traditions. For that and more, the LORD spoke to me in my dream and revealed to me in a vision a verse in the Bible, which you will find inside this book, that HE is not happy that the teachers have neglected the more important matters of HIS kingdom, which is living to inherit eternal life. HE automatically made me a writer so that I may enter the enemy zones and rescue those that the devil holds captive through the words of those material-minded teachers and the false prophets. To bring to light the desire of the LORD for HIS people to HIS people so that we may know where we are going wrong and be able to work it out with the help of GOD through JESUS CHRIST and the HOLY SPIRIT. Peace and love to you.

"Magisterial. . . . A learned, brilliant and enjoyable study."—Géza Vermès, Times Literary Supplement In this exciting book, Paula Fredriksen explains the variety of New Testament images of Jesus by exploring the ways that the new Christian communities interpreted his mission and message in light of the delay of the Kingdom he had preached. This edition includes an introduction reviews the most recent scholarship on Jesus and its implications for both history and theology. "Brilliant and lucidly written, full of original and fascinating insights."—Reginald H. Fuller, Journal of the American Academy of Religion "This is a first-rate work of a first-rate historian."—James D. Tabor, Journal of Religion "Fredriksen confronts her documents—principally the writings of the New Testament—as an archaeologist would an especially rich complex site. With great care she distinguishes the literary images from historical fact. As she does so, she explains the images of Jesus in terms of the strategies and purposes of the writers Paul, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John."—Thomas D'Evelyn, Christian Science Monitor

How I Made $3,200,000 from My Hobby: Cutting to the Chase Unistar Books

Greetings to my Christian Siblings, This book is presented in a straightforward and conversational style. Each chapter is scripturally based and simple to understand. The problem-solving action steps, regarding the Christian Issues discussed here, are user friendly. But I caution you that breaking old habits takes dedication and stamina. These action steps are not for the faint-hearted, for they ask us to delve past the surface of our daily interactions and get to the heart of how honest we really are with ourselves, with others, and with our God. From personal experience I can state that understanding God's will in my life is often far easier than submitting to His will in my life. Like so many life lessons, I've learned the action steps that you will read about in this book, the hard way. They did NOT first appear as I see them today. They appeared as anxiety, sleeplessness, bad dreams, dysfunctional relationships, buckets of tears and diminished health. Amazingly, when I got right with God, the action steps came into focus. Like I said, I learned these steps the hard way. Hebrews 12:1 "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us." Sin, like Cobwebs, can easily entangle us. And just like when we walk through an actual cobweb and are then simply overcome with the urgency to get that sticky stuff off our bodies, the spiritual equivalent should occur. When we find that The Spider has managed to weave a spiritual cobweb in our soul, we should be overcome with the same urgency to be rid of it immediately. The Spider wants to trap us, and he spins various and sundry webs to try to do so. Satan's cobwebs are waiting for us all. Though the blood of Christ does continually clean us (1 John 1:7), but sometimes we lose our focus and get all wrapped up in The Spider's web. When that happens, we may tend to obsess about how we were wronged or how we woefully wronged someone else. It is significant to note that in such times it is apparent that our minds have been focusing on our yesterdays and our tomorrows, instead of simply looking up to Christ who is our RIGHT NOW. In many churches today there are people who feel spiritually miserable because they have been attacked by Satan's Spiritual Spider Webs. Here's how it happens: Some wrong word or deed occurs, and the next thing you know The Spider is attempting to set up housekeeping in your soul. And he always brings his darkness with him: things like hopelessness, anger, misery, isolation, rejection, worthlessness, jealousy, revenge & apathy. But we are not of the dark. We are Children of Light. Ephesians 5:8 "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light." Clearly, Satan wants to alienate us from God, and he is using our own minds to do so. Because of that, this book is needed. Because of that, this book was written. The action steps below indicate what we, as Christians, are supposed to do when we come face to face with our own human errors, and find Cobwebs in the Christian Soul. 2. 'Fess Up! 3. Fix It! (Even If You Can't, God Can!) 4. Move On 5. Live Better=Pray & Study GOD'S WORD 6. Be Actively Engaged in the Church So there you have it: six simple chapters based on six simple concepts. Let's get started! In Him, Gayla Wood

Maxwell Smythe Brown IV is a smart-ass by design. To counter the ridicule his fancy name attracted, Brown the child became the point person in pranks, taunts, and mischief that kept him in hot water with teachers, principals, clerics and coaches. As he grew older, he added irreverence to mischievousness and his circle of victims and antagonists expanded to include military commanders, bosses and colleagues. When his clever speech and picaresque ways help him win the hand of a stunningly beautiful woman, it goes wrong; she's dismally unsuited for marriage and makes his life miserable. There are occasional bright spots: his disregard for authority and convention helps him survive the Vietnam war. But his inability to keep his mouth shut and his fly zipped costs him his university sinecure and he's exiled to Dhaka, Bangladesh. Three hundred years earlier the great Moghul Khan Shaista abruptly abandoned his post in the same city. The Khan's youngest and favorite daughter had succumbed to disease and the grief stricken Khan fled the country, but not - it is believed - before burying a treasure as a memorial to her short life. For three centuries fortune hunters have searched for the rumored treasure but Brown has an advantage. As an accessory to a pretentious name he's taken on a pretentious hobby: collecting antiquarian maps. Initially unaware of the importance of the information on one of his old maps, Brown sets in motion events that bring him closer to the treasure, but also attract the competitive attention of six brutal castoffs of an Indian intelligence service. Before the dust settles, two men have been beheaded, another skinned, a bystander strangled and two more fatally shot. With wit and irreverence, the book chronicles the journey of a man whose outward self-assurance and brashness mask wavering self-regard. As Brown acknowledges, it's a full time job keeping up appearances. But he's not without depth. A continuing theme is his quest for the true nature of a compassionate God who, paradoxically, presides over a universe of undeniable evil. Throughout, Professor Brown is our acerbic guide to: an unholy war, college campuses in the 70's, a university exhibiting signs of tenure-induced rigor mortis, a Thai brothel, the watering holes of Europe, and life in the bottom-most percentile of the third world. This edition (Cutting to the Chase) is an abridged version of the original book. Several readers said they would like to move more rapidly through the character development sections to the fast-paced thriller when Max takes up the treasure hunt in earnest (and the corpses stack up). Out of respect for that feedback, the novel was extensively revised to provide this - a more conventional - thriller.

This document's purpose is to spell out the Church's understanding of the nature of revelation--the process whereby God communicates with human beings. It touches upon questions about Scripture, tradition, and the teaching authority of the Church. The major concern of the document is to proclaim a Catholic understanding of the Bible as the "word of God." Key elements include: Trinitarian structure, roles of apostles and bishops, and biblical reading in a historical context.

I Thought About It in My Head and I Felt It in My Heart but I Made It with My Hands Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing

This is Conspiracy or Faith, I call this one, the Special Edition, the code name for this work is; Building the God kind of House. Why would I call it such a thing? Well, I have been a carpenter since I was 12 years old, and today, I still do a lot of that kind of work, but, as you can see, there are a lot of things that I do. This book is based on the principles of what it takes to actually build a real house, then, on the flip side, it talks about the format of building your Faith, based on the design of building the house. Life is filled with chaos, misconceptions, and deception. In fact, the Bible tells us that, the devil has deceived the entire world, does that include you and me? Of course it does, our job is to power through to get back to where the Lord wanted us. Conspiracy or Faith started out as a book directed towards the life and death and the resurrection of Jesus Christ, and it has expanded to what you now see, will I ever do a commentary? no, that I can point blank tell you, no, That is one book, that I personally will not be doing. To Build the God kind of House, or not to build it, is that a real quest to a question? Actually, it is a desire placed within us by the Holy Spirit, what you thought you understood about life, is actually, a stepping stone to what you can learn, information is endless, conspiracy means that it is up to you whether you want to trust the information, Faith says, the information came from a good source, but yet still the same, no one but you, can make you want to believe it, and then take it as your own. have you ever driven a car down the road and thought that you were going the wrong way, then, you had to rethink where it was you were going, to figure out the right route you had to be on? truth works the same way, we have taken the lies from the wickedness of the principalities and the rulers of darkness, and we have made them truth, but, in the end, the lies, are still lies, because to God, who does not change, the truth stands forever. So then, faith, is that thing that can bring us before the Lord, with a heart made unto Thanksgiving, what does that mean? there are things that God wants to give to us, but without Faith, those things don't get to us, they go into a store house for somebody later on in our blood line. It is impossible to please God without faith, so why come before Him with a heart and spirit of doubt? God wants to pour out on you, He wants you soaked with His everything, that is why Jesus said, take my yoke about you, for my yoke is easy, taking on the yoke of this world brings on self destruction. reading this book is not about you going out there buying land, and trying to build a house, it is about self application, to build up your Faith in not only Jesus Christ, but in the Holy Spirit, God the Father, and the Kingdom of God.

The story of Noah is single handedly one of the most popular stories in the Bible. However, its popularity does not come from the reality of what Noah and his family may have experienced. We live in a culture that uses anything and everything for monetary gain. Noah's Ark is no exception. You will find Noah from the Christian bookstore to the grocery store. He is everywhere. AnimMan Studios presents Noah in a way never before seen. The pages are filled with imagery that are very striking in contrast to one another. Once again, there is no way of knowing exactly what things looked like or what Noah and his family went through, but one thing we do know...it was not an easy ride, not to mention the hardship they must have endured leading up to the flood. Come with us on a journey like nothing you've ever experienced. Be transported back in time and see what may have gone on. The Bible tells us that Noah was a righteous man and a preacher of righteousness and yet only he and his family were saved upon the ark. What does that say for society at that time? This book explores the stark contrasts between Noah, a preacher of righteousness and a society that has gotten so bad that God was ?grieved in His heart that He made man.”

“For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.” –Hebrews 13:14 At the very heart of God’s plan for the world stands an extraordinary city. Beginning with the garden of Eden in Genesis and ending with the New Jerusalem in Revelation, the biblical story reveals how God has been working throughout history to establish a city filled with his glorious presence. Tracing the development of the theme of city in both testaments, T. Desmond Alexander draws on his experience as a biblical scholar to show us God’s purpose throughout Scripture to dwell with his redeemed people in a future extraordinary city on a transformed earth. Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series.

I Made My Choice—Have You? Thomas Nelson

In this "essential" (Kirkus) new work, Noel Rae integrates firsthand accounts into a narrative history that brings the reader face to face with slavery's everyday reality, expertly weaving together narratives that span hundreds of years. From the travel journals of sixteenth-century Spanish settlers who offered religious instruction and "protection" in exchange for farm labor, to the diaries of poetess Phillis Wheatley and Reverend Cotton Mather, to Central Park designer Frederick Law Olmsted's book about traveling through the "cotton states," to an 1880 speech given by Frederick Douglass, Rae provides a comprehensive accounting of parties from throughout the antebellum history of the nation. Rae also draws on a wide variety of accounts from less distinguished individuals: a surgeon describes the brutal treatment and squalid conditions onboard a slave ship as he made his daily rounds to collect the dead; an Englishman visiting Haiti observes violent uprisings as, separated from the population on the mainland, slaves were able to overpower their captors. Most significant are the texts from and interviews with former slaves themselves, ranging from the famous Solomon Northup to the virtually unknown Mary Reynolds, who was sold away from her mother and subsequently bought back not for sentiment or kindness, but because after losing her daughter, the family's wet nurse began to waste away from grief. Surpassing a dispassionate listing of atrocities, Rae places the reader within the era. Drawing on thousands of original sources, The Great Stain tells of repression and resistance in a society based on the exploitation of the cheapest labor and fallacies of racial superiority. Meticulously researched, this is a work of history that is profoundly relevant to our world today.
